The following is the schedule of our series. Please check the monthly newsletter and weekly bulletins for changes to this schedule. While each series examines special themes, each class is self-contained and there is no requirement to attend each class in a series. Please come as your schedule permits.

Encounters with Jesus: Studies in the Gospel of John by Frances Taylor Gench

September 20 thro October 25

Calvin argued that the gospel of John "is a key to open the door for understanding the rest." Many people love the gospel of John because it is the most christocentric of the gospels, that is, when we read it, Christ seems more up close and personal. We can find ourselves in direct encounter with him. Join the Sunday morning Adult Bible class as they explore the challenges in this gospel and how it informs our faith and lives.

The Thoughtful Christian's Introduction to the Gospel of Mark

November 1 through 15

Who was Mark? What is different about his Gospel from the other three? Why does he spend half the book on the death and resurrection of Jesus? How does his message speak to us today? These and other questions will be examined in this three week introduction to the first gospel.

November 1: Identity of Mark. Why, when and to whom he wrote his gospel.

November 8: What does it mean to call Jesus the Son of God? How did Mark understand this title?

November 15: Mark's account of the death and resurrection of Jesus. Why does Mark's gospel end strangely compared to the other gospels.

The Thoughtful Christian's Advent Through the Eyes of Those who Waited

December 6 through 20: This study by Carol Wehrheim introduces and re-introduces participants to several biblical characters found in the lectionary readings for Advent. First, the prophets in the book of Isaiah present us with the idea of waiting and preparing for the Messiah-our work for Advent. Next we meet John the Baptist who announces the coming of the Messiah. Mary, the mother of Jesus, is the main subject of sessions three and four. Protestants, until recently, have not given her much consideration, but we have much to learn about patience and courage from the mother of Jesus. Finally, we learn from Elizabeth about how to accept a blessing so long in coming that it is no longer expected.

January Hiatus

This year the Adult Bible committee has decided to take a hiatus in the month of January because of the travels to Israel and to the Gulf Coast. The committee encourages all Adult Bible class members to attend either Case Library Conversations or the Spiritual Life classes.

Exodus, Interpretation Bible Studies

February 7 through March 21:

During February and March, join the Adult Bible class as they study Exodus. This Old Testament book is a compelling narrative of three characters: the God of Israel, who rescues a people in captivity after years of silence; Moses, the leader of Israel, who reluctantly accepts his calling and goes on to become the giver of the Law; and the people of Israel, who struggle to be faithful to God after facing near extinction at the hands of its captors. In the weaving of their stories, Exodus becomes a story for our time - a story of seeking and finding a God who redeems us in our moments of separation and sin.

The Art of Parables: Reinterpreting the Teaching Stories of Jesus in Word & Sculpture, Charles McCollough

April 11 through May 23:

This study of the parables involves both words and images. For each parable, there is a dvd image of sculpture of the artist's interpretation of the parable. Each lesson begins with a question to which the parable speaks. Jesus himself often started a parable with a question, such as "What do you think?" or "Which one of you...?" These questions are tools to engage a class to struggle with issues raised in the parables - which have implications for us today, even though they were asked 2,000 years ago.

April 11: Defining the Parable (The Barren Fig Tree)

April 18: The Samaritan

April 25: The Prodigal and Elder Sons

May 2: The Mustard Seed, The Leaven

May 9: The Young Women

May 23: The Last Judgment

Monthly Bible Study Groups

WOW Bible study: Joshua

2nd Thursday of the month

12 Noon in Case Library

WOW (Women of Westminster) invites all interested women to join our brown bag Bible study. This study begins on October 8th at 12 pm and continues on the 2nd Thursday of the month and concludes on Thursday, June 10, 2010.

This year our study is Presbyterian Women's Horizons "Joshua: A Journey of Faith." These nine monthly lessons will explore the journey taken by Joshua and the Israelites into the land of Canaan. With each step Joshua and the people made choices to follow God and how to be God's people. This study will explore themes of leadership, the promise land, the concept of holy war, the process of outsiders becoming insiders, and the covenant God has with all creation. These themes are important to us today as they were to the Israelites then.

Beverages will be provided and participants are encourage to bring a brown bag lunch. Purchase of this year's study is $6, and a large print copy is $10. If you're interested in purchasing a study guide and/or attending please sign up in the Holmes Room. 2nd Tuesday of the month, 6:30 pm - 8pm

A small, but determined group of people meet on the second Tuesday of the month for Bible study. Our first class is Tuesday, October 13th when we begin Helpmates, Harlots and Heroes: Women's Stories in the Hebrew Bible by Alice Bellis. This study will focus on familiar as well as unfamiliar women in the Bible and we will examine their stories through the lens of feminist and womanist interpretations.
